

emotions

Animating emotions such as joy, anger, curiosity, surprise while getting used to Adobe After Effects. Can you guess which one is which?

this never

What happens if we close our eyes for a second and let your mind do it's thing? Usually, a tumult of thoughts takes up the empty space with a speed faster than light. We cannot face them all in the same time, sometimes not even one by one. This can lead to us feeling worried or overwhelmed.

Once we open our eyes though, we get distracted by something else and we forget for a moment. It was just in our mind, it never actually happened, did it?
